

A Great Day in the Kingdom – 1/13/23

This week I was privileged to attend the swearing in of Glenn Rogers (one of our members) for State Representative. I am not involved in politics, but am actively involved with Church members and the narratives they experience. I walked through the State of Texas Capital building, following Glenn and Mandy and soon arrived in the Chamber. As I do not wear ties because of airway issues, it would hinder my admittance to the chamber. So, I wore a tie, loosely. By the way, the House has a tie lender guy.

As Mandy and I were visiting, a gentleman walked up and said, “Your tie looks better than mine. It goes better with my outfit. Can we trade?” I agreed to modify this State piece of property. It was one of those ties that melt near a heater. However, the one I received in return was much worse. It was brown and covered in characters of cows. I looked even more ridiculous.

At that moment, I regretted the generous nature of trading ties. To make matters worse, as I was leaving the man and his wife wanted a picture of us together, because we had traded ties. I kept repeating Mandy’s comment. “No one would believe you, unless they just saw what happened.” She was right!

Life gives us strange moments. Sometimes we’ll make the right decision and other times our decisions will be like the ugly tie. Thankfully, God gives us a chance to wear a better tie, every day. We can even choose one that goes better with our outfit. By the way, I gave a tie back to the State, just not the one I took. Hopefully, I did not violate the commandment of “Thou shall not steal.”

2 Corinthians 9:8 And God is able to bless you abundantly, so that at all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work.

I needed a tie. God provided a tie. Another needed my tie and provided me the same (the ugliest tie I have ever seen).

Have a Blessed Week Church!! Love to You All!!!

PRAYER: Heavenly Father, Thank You for providing what I need to work for you. Help me to serve you, by serving others. Help me to lead others to Jesus Christ. In His risen name I Pray. AMEN!!!
