

A Great Day in the Kingdom 9/30/22

If our church looked like Jesus' version of the church, what would we look like? I personally find offense to that question, which requires an incredibly arbitrary and biased answer. Jesus spoke out quite often concerning the least and the lost. The question remains, what do those people look like? What clothes do they wear and who are they?

Again, I find the question obtuse. Here is the reason "why." The least and the lost walk through the door every Sunday. We may be successful, socially and economically, but the question remains concerning the areas in our lives where we are lost. All of us feel like the least and the lost, at times. This is the place where we meet together and find restoration, hope, love and acceptance. Remember, "You won't find a better group of people who are sinners, just trying to get it right?"

The Book of Luke, Chapter 19:10 speaks directly to the lost.

"For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost."

There are times when all of us are lost. All of us need saving, as our church family reminds us, each Sunday. The gathering of sinners itself is the great equalizer of us all! Praise God!

PRAYER: Heavenly Father, Thank You for finding me when I feel lost. Remind me that your Love will always find me, as I will find it. Thank You for Loving Me. In the name of the Risen Christ I Pray. AMEN!!!
