

A Great Day in the Kingdom – 5/10/24

How far is “far”? People in different geographical context vary in perspective. If I am riding with someone from West Texas, the distance is not as relevant to them, compared to someone who lives in an urban environment. The individual perspective relates to one's own experience.

Faith is much similar. For those who are new, the discoveries, or what an experienced person of faith might take for granted, are milestones. The beauty of our Church family can be described as no matter where you are, you are here! By the way, a reminder that you are never late to Church, you are just here!

Romans 12:2, Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind.

This passage describes our individual and corporate process of Sanctifying Grace. Our milestones may differ from one another, yet we are all being changed. Praise God!!!

Have a Blessed week!!! Church!!!
