

David Glickman, CFA*Co-Deputy Director of Research and Analyst

David Glickman serves as co-deputy director of research and is also an analyst of Health Care companies. He joined Harding Loevner in 2018 and is a partner of the firm. David has nearly 25 years of industry experience, include previously serving as Sector Head, International Health Care at Calamos Investments and Head of Asia-Pacific Research at Mirae Asset Global Investments Ltd. in Hong Kong. He also worked in Health Care equity research for Sigma Capital Management, Arcoda Capital Management, and Cumberland Associates. David graduated from Harvard University with an AB in economics and is a CFA Charterholder.