

REACH EVENT

REACH for INDEPENDENCE

Join us for an in-person event to

- Hear from youth managing their chronic illness and health care providers
- Get helpful hints for advocating for yourself
- Find out what community resources you are eligible for
- Hear from youth that live at home, at college and on their own

REACH: Rapport, Empowerment, Advocacy through Connections and Health is a program brought to you by the Adult Care and Transition Team and REACH Student Advisors for youth ages 15-20 with chronic illness.

Some examples of chronic illnesses include but are not limited to Crohn's disease, IBD, lupus, diabetes, epilepsy. Parents/caregivers are welcome.

From a past participant: "REACH really helped me learn how to advocate for myself with teachers and at work."
