Brandon Artists Open Studios May 26 and 27

Caleb Kenna, Judith Reilly, the Brandon Artists Guild and Chittenden Printmaker Jeannie Podolak will take part in the annual Vermont Crafts Council Spring Open Studio Weekend May 26 and 27, 2018 from 10 – 5. Open Studio Weekend is a statewide celebration of the visual arts, offering a unique opportunity for visitors to meet local artists in their studios, and purchase high quality artwork. Follow the bright yellow signs!

Maps and information can be found at the Brandon Artists Guild at 7 Center Street in Brandon (802) 247-4956. The Quilt Trail of Brandon, Vermont has been launched by the Brandon Artists Guild, in an exciting effort to engage Guild artists in a fun project, to involve the Brandon community, and to entice travelers to stop in town. A quilt trail is a series of square boards painted with dynamic quilt block designs. They can be placed on the exterior of barns, homes, and businesses. There is an auction planned for the summer of 2019.

Judith Reilly thoroughly enjoys welcoming visitors into her Studio at 24 Conant Square, Brandon VT 05733, (802) 247-8421. She will share her process of making her whimsical and colorful fabric art pieces. Her Gallery is opened from May 26 through December on Friday and Saturday afternoons and holds fabric pieces, prints and note cards, as well as this year's new collection of hooked wool pillows which she designs for Chandler 4 Corners.

Printmaker Jeannie Podolak of Chittenden will be exhibiting work in 2 locations: her home studio at 24 Lazy Acres Road, North Chittenden and Downtown Rutland, The Alley Gallery Center Street May 10 - June 2, Th-F, 12-5, Sat 11-3 Reception: May 27, 2-5pm. Her work involves a variety of printmaking techniques, etchings, collographs and monoprints with bold, abstract imagery.

Caleb Kenna Photography offers photographic prints from Vermont and around the world. His work focuses mostly on abstract patterns of nature. His studio is located in a hilltop studio with stunning views of Brandon and the Green Mountains. Caleb Kenna Photography, 40 Old Farm Road, Brandon, Vermont 05733, (802) 770 8700
