The mission is to bridge the gap for south-land residents in temporary crisis. TWC feeds nearly 5,000 people a month and distributes personal care products that are not covered by the food stamp program. Visit www.togetherwecope.org for more information. Many face a challenge every week. There are more requests than donations. They provide shelter to abandoned, lost and relinquished pets. They provide humane education in animal care to the communities. They strive to prevent overpopulation by offering spay/neuter programs, rather than through the use of euthanasia. They are dedicated to finding safe and permanent new homes for our domestic animals, as well as helping the public choose the right companions for their families. Donations can benefit animals in different ways. Please visit www.pawstinleypark.org
