

"Simply put, this training will save your career."

- Lisa Bunn, Tampa Police Department

"Even after years of media training this class opened my eyes to developing liability trends I hadn't considered."

- Yolanda Fernandez Walker, St. Petersburg Police, FL

"To properly apply social media in modern law enforcement, this class is an attention getter that will make you rethink what is posted and how to reply or not reply to comments that the public gives."

- Chris Metzger, Palmetto Police Department

"Mark, this course was different from any of my previous training because there was much more detailed case law. Also, your examples and strategies will save the careers of law enforcement officers."

- B. Tracy, Tampa Police Department

"This course was definitely more extensive and broader than anything I had ever taken before. The training was an in-depth survey of the legal issues that face officers and departments in the digital age. It was very helpful to identify the needs of departments to develop the policies and training that will hold up in court."

Aron Pilant, Bradenton Police, FL

"This was a very informative class. I never knew there was this kind of social media liability. What made this course so different is that I focused on legal issues as opposed to creating content to increase followers."

- Sarah Brown, Tampa Police, FL

"I was unaware of how much liability was possible with social media use. Your class made a strong argument that there needs to be a much stronger social media policy as well as training to keep up with the changes in technology and social media law."

- Willard Stephens, Hernando County Sheriff's Office

"This course provides a ton of new useful information. It really makes you think about social media liability."

- John Ellis, Hernando County Sheriff's Office, FL

"This is a great class. I learned a lot that I didn't know. It was my first class that was totally focused on social media liability. I'm glad I attended."

- Vcao Zollota, St. Petersburg Police Department

"This course was different than my previous training because it was a deeper look into the liability of social media content on various platforms. I especially like the new information on copyright infringement"

- Emily Bibb, Bradenton Police Department

"This was good information, especially the strategies on avoiding libel and your policy writing tips."

- Lisa Bunn, Tampa Police Department
