

National Principals Month

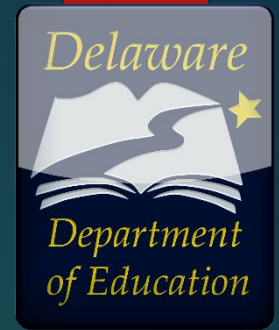

October 2018

Nicole Kurz-McDowell from Star Hill Elementary School in the Caesar Rodney School District embodies the characteristics of any great principal. She not only cares for the students, but maintains support for each of her staff, as well. From coming into our classrooms to check in, to leaving kind notes in our mailboxes, she makes Star Hill a great place to be!

National Principals Month

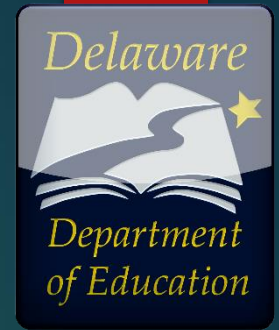

October 2018

Michelle Flanders from the John S.
Charlton School in the Caesar Rodney School District rocks!!!!

National Principals Month

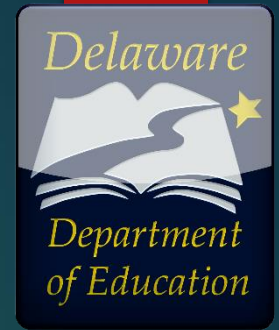

October 2018

Jen Martin from W.B. Simpson in the Caesar Rodney School District always has a smile on her face for students and staff. She interacts with students and parents with respect and makes Simpson a special place to be.

National Principals Month

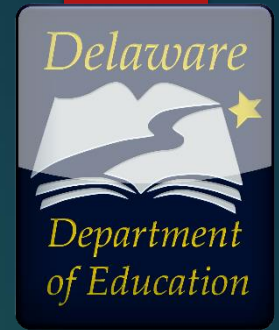

October 2018

Kimberly Corbeil from Fifer Middle School in the Caesar Rodney School District is absolutely rocking behavioral MTSS this year!

National Principals Month

October 2018

Postlethwait Middle School in the Caesar Rodney School District is welcoming to everyone. Both staff and students are extremely kind and helpful.

Dr. Kris Failing is awesome!

National Principals Month

October 2018

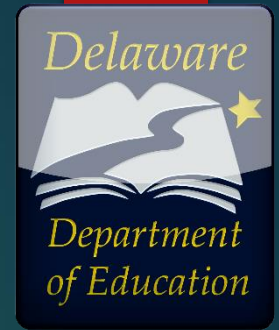

Dr. Sherry Kijowski from Caesar Rodney High School in the Caesar Rodney School District always goes above and beyond for her students and staff.

National Principals Month

October 2018

Dr. Kris Failing at Postlethwait Middle School in the Caesar Rodney School District has one of the best SW-PBS programs I've seen!