Representing the BTEA, Louis J. Coletti, BTEA President and CEO, provides input to Mayor Adams' Capital Process Reform Task Force. He recently attended Task Force Meetings with key New York City mayoral agency and authority decisionmakers and select industry and MWBE representatives.

"These recommendations will be the foundation for reducing costs for city projects, expediting the construction of city projects and the jobs and tax revenue these projects will create for New Yorkers," said Louis Coletti, president and CEO, Building Trades Employers' Association.
