See the University where Luther taught (exterior view), and visit Melanchthon's House, as well as Luther House, which is the largest and most significant museum of Reformation history in the world. We will visit the Stadtkirche of St. Marien, where Luther used to preach, and see the Luther monument and the Renaissance Town Hall (exterior view).

- Drive to Eisleben, which ranks amongst the most significant of all places having a connection with him, although he only spent a little time here – he was born here on November 10th, 1483, and died here on February 18th, 1546; old manuscripts indicate that he felt a special affinity toward Eisleben.
- During the guided city tour among others we will visit the house of his birth and see the house where he died St. Andrew's Church where he preached his last sermon and where his body was laid out, the Church of St. Peter and Paul where he was christened and the Luther Monument.
- Spend some time at leisure to see the marketplace and other points of interest, such as St. Anne's Church with the famous biblical scenes hewn in stone and the buildings of former St. Augustine's Monastery.
- Lunch on your own.
