

Fourth of July Celebrations in Historic Trappe, PA

“Morning Prayer” at Historic Old Trappe Church at 8:30 717 Main Street

Begin your Fourth of July celebration at 8:30 with morning prayer at Historic Old Trappe Church, a designated National Historic Landmark. During the Revolutionary War, the church was used by the Continental Army as a field hospital. Many members of the Muhlenberg family are buried in the graveyard.

This beautiful service will include readings, prayer, and music focusing on peace. The Augustus Choir will be joined by members of the Coventry Singers and the Augustus Bell Choir.

“Kids Dig History” at the Speaker’s House at 10:00 151 Main Street

Following the service, you can move to the Speaker’s House for a special edition of “Kids Dig History,” a festive fife and drum procession to the Muhlenberg House

“Reading of the Declaration of Independence” at the Muhlenberg House at 10:15 201 Main Street

Hear a stirring reading of the Declaration of Independence from the balcony of the Muhlenberg House!

For more information contact:

Augustus Lutheran Church

717 W. Main St.

Trappe, PA 19426-1935

610.489.9625

music@augustustrappe.org