

Andover Community Food Bank at the Andover United Methodist Church, 1429 N. Andover Rd. in Andover, 316-733-1644: For Andover residents only with a photo ID. Open 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Tuesdays, 3-6 p.m. Wednesdays and 10 a.m. to noon on the last Saturday of the month. Drive-through model with prepacked bags of groceries delivered to people's car. Clients can currently get help once a month.

Antioch Giving Center at Antioch Community Church, 255 S. Estelle, 316-425-5654: Open Noon to 12:30 p.m. Sundays and 5-7:30 p.m. on the first Tuesday of the month. There are no requirements to use the pantry, but it is operating differently than usual now.

Bread of Life, 1301 E. Galena, 316-689-6866: Open Tuesdays from 10 a.m. to 1:45 p.m. The pantry will be doing regular food distribution on April 14, which requires a photo ID or social security card for each household member and proof of address and income. A produce giveaway at 1 p.m. April 18 is first-come, first-served. The pantry is limiting the number of clients inside and asking people to wash their hands.

Breakthrough/Episcopal Social Services Venture House, 1010 N. Main, 316-269-4160: Weekday soup kitchen serves a to-go-style bagged breakfast that includes a drink from 8-9 a.m. There are no income or other requirements to receive a meal.

Catholic Charities Our Daily Bread Food Pantry, 2825 S. Hillside, 316-264-8344 ext. 1504: Open 8:30 a.m. to noon every Tuesday through Thursday and from 9 a.m. to noon on the fourth Saturday of the month. Drive-through or walk-up pickup in the parking lot. The pantry is currently asking only for the name of the head of household and how many adults and children are in a family. Proof of income is not required. Clients will receive a prepackaged box or bag with two to three days of food based on family size. Pick up is usually limited to once every 30 days, but the pantry is currently not tracking that.

His Helping Hands, 1441 E. 37th St. N., 316-838-8528: Open for food distribution 4:30-6 p.m. on the first and third Tuesdays of the month. Also does household and furniture distribution by referral and clothing distribution by appointment with no referral needed. Photo ID required but no other requirements to receive prepackaged bag of food from pantry.

Jehovah Jireh Food and Clothing Center, 627 N. Ash, 316-262-2192: Open 1-3:30 p.m. on the third Thursday and third Friday of the month and from 9-11:30 a.m. on the third Saturday of the month. Bread and commodities distribution in April.

Living Water Ministries at First Church of the Nazarene, 1400 E. Kellogg Dr., 316-858-1406: Food pantry open from 1-3 p.m. Wednesdays. Call for specifics on how to use the pantry and any requirements.

The Lord's Diner of Wichita, several locations in Wichita, 316-266-4966: To-go meals served nightly from 5:30-7:30 p.m. at its diner locations at 520 N. Broadway and 2825 S. Hillside, and from 4-6 p.m. at its mobile truck locations at Friendship Park in Hilltop, 1329 S. Terrace and the Atwater Community Center, 2755 E. 19th St. N. The mobile truck at the Evergreen Community Center, 2700 N. Woodland, is temporarily closed. There are no income or other requirements to receive a meal.

Neighborhood Love Pantry at Grace Revolution Church, 812 S. Oliver, 316-990-5819: Open 5:30-6:30 p.m. on the second and fourth Mondays of the month. There are no income or other requirements to use the pantry, but people should bring a photo ID. Clients can visit the pantry every day it is open and will receive food items including meat based on family size. Pickup is similar to pre-COVID-19 methods but the church is limiting the number of people in the building.

Old Time Gospel Baptist Church, 2552 N. Jackson Ave., 316-259-5739: Bread and produce giveaway from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on the first Thursday of the month, and regular pantry pick up from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on the third Thursday of the month. Distribution is on a first-come, first-served basis. No income requirements to use pantry but photo ID required. On April 16, people will be given a ticket at a tent outside of the church and then will be handed a prepared box of food that includes meats, desserts, drinks and dry items at the church door. The pantry director asks that people lining up observe social distancing guidelines.

Park City Pride Food Pantry, 6512 N. East Park View in Park City, 316-744-8685: For Park City residents only who provide a photo ID, proof of income and a bill to prove residency. The regular food pantry is open 9:30-11 a.m. on the third Saturday of the month. The pantry also will run a food distribution day from 9:30-11 a.m. on May 9 especially for families of laid-off workers. Call and leave a message for more information if interested.

The Salvation Army, multiple locations that serve specific zip codes, 316-263-2769: The Salvation Army has three food pantries that operate by appointment only from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. every Tuesday and Thursday. For now, the pantries have abandoned their "client choice" model – where families choose their groceries – in favor of prepackaged boxes that will be delivered to your car outside. The pantries provide about 15 pounds of food per person once every 30 days and is currently including "snack bags" of treats for kids. Food boxes include milk, bread, eggs and other items. Right now, income requirements are lifted and there's minimal paperwork but clients will need to show a photo ID. The distribution addresses are 1739 S. Elpyco, 350 N. Market and 1910 S. Everett in Wichita.

Sisters of Joseph Dear Neighbor Center, 1329 S. Bluffview, 316-684-5120: Open to Wichitans only, with a focus on Hilltop neighborhood residents, from 9 a.m. to noon Monday through Thursday. There are no income or other requirements to use the pantry but a person can only use it once every 30 days. Currently operating with a drive-through and walk-up model. Pantry workers will prepare food bags based on family size and then leave them for pickup on a bench outside.

Table of Hope Metropolitan Community Church, 156 S. Kansas, 316-267-1852: Open weekly on Tuesday and Wednesday by appointment only. Clients must call between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. on Monday to reserve an appointment slot and provide information about eligibility. The pantry is operating with a drive-through model where it puts prepared food boxes on a table next to the building for client pickup.

Union Rescue Mission, 2800 N. Hillside, 316-687-4673: Free prepackaged food boxes available to about 40 families each week. Call at 9 a.m. Monday to schedule a Thursday appointment. Drive-through model. Appointments are first-come, first-served with no income requirements. Diapers and formula available for people who do meet income requirements.

United Methodist Open Door Pantry, 2130 E. 21st St. N., 316-267-4201: Families or individuals can receive a box of food that includes meat, eggs, produce, canned and dry goods once a month. Open every weekday from 9-11:45 a.m. and 1-3:45 p.m. Pantry requires an ID for household members, proof of address and proof that income is 130% of federal poverty guidelines or under. Food pickup is drive-through or walk up.

FOOD PANTRIES AND SOUP KITCHENS THAT MAY BE OPEN. CALL TO CONFIRM BEFORE GOING:

College Crest Church of Christ, 2615 N. Wellesley, 316-686-1981: Soup kitchen is open for lunch every Monday from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. There are no restrictions on who may use it.

College Hill United Methodist Church, 2930 E. First St., 316-683-4643: Open from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on the first Tuesday of the month.

New Beginnings Church, 209 W. 21st St. N., 316-267-6504: Open 1-3 p.m. Wednesdays. Bring ID for each family member as well as proof of address and income.

St. Jude Catholic Church, 3130 N. Amidon, 316-838-1963: Open 9-10 a.m. Mondays with no restrictions.

St. Patrick's Church Lord's Pantry, 2007 N. Arkansas, 316-262-4683: Serves residents who live between West Street and Broadway from Central to 37th Street North. Open from 8:30-10 a.m. Tuesdays and from 9-10:30 a.m. on the first Saturday of the month.

FREE FOOD FOR KIDS ONLY:

The Wichita Public School District is offering free grab-and-go meals twice a week at 18 locations to children ages 1 to 18. Bags are available Monday and Wednesday from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and include breakfast and lunch items for multiple days. Children must be present to receive food.

The Kansas Food Bank is working with area organizations and the Wichita Public School District to resume weekend food delivery to students participating in the Food 4 Kids backpack program. Food bank president and CEO Brian Walker said he hopes Wichita children will be receiving those meals again by mid-April.

Sources: The Kansas Food Bank, United Way of the Plains, Breakthrough/Episcopal Social Services and reporting by The Wichita Eagle