SMALL GROUP DISCUSSION EXPECTATIONS

We commit to:

- Remain mindful that each person is sacred, a dwelling for the Holy Spirit, and that our purpose is to build understanding among members of the Christian community.
- Share speaking time and refrain from interrupting others.
- Speak for ourselves, using “I” statements. We won’t try to speak for a whole group of people, nor will we expect others to do so.
- “Pass” or “pass for now” when needed — no explanation required.

SMALL GROUP DISCUSSION EXPECTATIONS

- Speak about our experiences in ways that respect other people's experiences. Commit to honoring differences, knowing they add to the richness of the community's experience.
- Listen with resilience, "staying with it" even when something may be hard to hear.
- Keep what we hear today confidential. This means that we will not attribute particular statements to particular individuals by any identifying information.

“Never let evil talk pass your lips; say only the good things men need to hear, things that will really help them. Do nothing that will sadden the Holy Spirit with whom you were sealed against the day of redemption. Get rid of all bitterness, all passion and anger, harsh words, slander, and malice of every kind. In place of these, be kind to one another, compassionate, and mutually forgiving, just as God has forgiven you in Christ.” ~St. Paul, the Apostle (Ephesians 4:29-32)

SMALL GROUP DISCUSSION SUMMARY

1. Did anything stand out to you from Monsignor's reflection? Do you see racism as a life issue in a new way?
2. What is your response to the testimony shared tonight? Did Gerri's story remind you of some experience in your own life?
3. Why do you think it is that we can see (or experience) the same event and come away with a different opinion as to whether or not it is racially motivated?
4. How does your faith suggest you respond to events in our community and nation?
5. How can tonight's discussion help you seek unity with others rather than division?
