

Wayland - Wellesley Festival Concert

Please join the Wayland High School Choral Department for an incredible concert.

Renowned conductor, Dr. Eph Ehly, will be conducting the Wayland High School Festival Chorus and the Wellesley High School Keynote Singers in a collaboration concert.

Declared as "one of the most sought-after choral conductors/clinicians" in the American Choral Directors Journal, Dr. Eph Ehly has conducted over 80 All-State Choirs and more than 600 Festival Ensembles. As a conductor, author, lecturer, and clinician he has appeared in 48 states, Canada, Brazil, Japan, Mexico, and various countries throughout Europe. Dr. Ehly retired from the Conservatory of Music, University of Missouri-Kansas City after 27 years of service. He has additionally served at the University of Oklahoma and University of New Mexico, having supervised nearly 200 graduate students. Dr. Ehly is the recipient of numerous teaching and performance excellence awards and grants, including the Missouri Choral Directors Association Luther Spade Choral Director of the Year Award and the AMOCO Foundation Outstanding Teaching Award.

The Lauren Dunne Astley Memorial Fund was a major benefactor of this concert. We are grateful for the generous support.

Lauren Dunne Astley
MEMORIAL FUND

CAPA, the Creative Arts Parents Association also lent support to make this concert possible.

April 11, 2018
Wayland High School
MainStage Auditorium
7:30pm