Dear UCSF/BCH Employees,

We are thrilled to announce an exciting partnership with the Oakland Museum of California (OMCA)—offering free admission to all UCSF employees throughout 2025!

OMCA is home to a remarkable collection of over 1.9 million objects that highlight California's art, history, and natural sciences. The museum showcases diverse narratives, including first-person accounts and often untold stories of California's past and present. In addition to its expansive permanent galleries, OMCA's latest exhibition, Born of the Bear Dance: Dugan Aguilar's Photographs of Native California, provides a vibrant glimpse into contemporary Indigenous life.

Thanks to the generosity of a grateful patient moved by the exceptional care they received at UCSF, this partnership allows all UCSF employees to enjoy unlimited free admission to OMCA.

How to Access Your Free Admission:

- Show your UCSF employee ID at the ticketing desk.
- Offer includes free admission for children (12 and under) in your household.
- Valid through December 31, 2025.

We encourage you to take advantage of this opportunity for team outings, bonding activities, or personal visits to explore OMCA's stunning seven-acre campus along Lake Merritt.

For museum hours, location, and details on weekly special programs, visit www.museumca.org. Some restrictions may apply, so we encourage you to contact OMCA directly with any questions regarding your visit.

We hope you take advantage of this wonderful benefit and enjoy the opportunity to connect with California's rich history and culture!

For any questions about this partnership, please reach out to Abdur Shemsu at abdur.shemsu@ucsf.edu.
