Fill out the application and receive a box filled with cool stuff to keep, plus three library books to borrow, chosen just for you by your personal teen librarian! Everything except the books and the box is yours to keep. Available to teens 12-18 years old.

Self-Watering Container Gardens

3/1 @11 am.—12 pm. Celebrate the first day of spring with a hands-on gardening adventure at the library! Join us on March 1st as a Glendale Water Services Department's conservation expert Anne teaches families how to create eco-friendly "Self-Watering Container Gardens" using plastic bottles, soil, and a variety of seeds. Kids and adults will learn sustainable gardening techniques and take home their very own seedlings to watch grow right on their windowsill.

STEAM Kids Club

3/5 @2:30 pm. Digital Art Session 2. Children ages 6-12 will dive into the world of digital art.

3/12 @2:30 pm. String Telephone. Children ages 6-12 will explore how telephones work by creating their own string telephones using household materials.

3/19 @2:30 pm. DIY Windmills. Children ages 6-12 will harness the power of the wind by building their own windmills from household materials.

3/26 @2:30 pm. DIY Rattle Drums. Children ages 6-12 will craft their own rattle drums using household materials while learning about the rich history of this traditional instrument.

*Registration is required.

Family Literacy Night

3/24 @6 pm.—7 pm. The TAG Lab is hosting Family Literacy Night (FLN) in partnership with Heroes Regional Park Libraries!
The FLN is a free family-centered shared reading event for parents and their children, ages two to four years old (Older/Younger siblings are always welcome)! Join us to read, craft, sign, move, and learn tips and tricks that make reading fun and engaging for young children!

All events at the Glendale Public Library are public, and participants may be photographed by the media and/or City staff for future print and/or online publication.

Glendale Public Library is a division of the City of Glendale's Community Services Department: 623-930-3600
