

POP QUIZ

The slide pins can stick in their bores, preventing sufficient braking force and causing the brake pad to drag and wear prematurely. As a result, while driving forward, the vehicle will drift or pull to the side with the dragging front brake.