Summer Camps 2026

Camp Liberty | Basecamp | CIT Program

CIT Highlights

Program Focus

A volunteer program designed to help teens gain volunteer hours and build leadership skills.

Skill Development

Opportunity to gain new leadership skills and work experience.

Activities & Involvement

CITs participate alongside campers, helping lead games and crafts, preparing meals, and engaging in weekly special events.

Target Applicants

15-year-olds seeking work or volunteer experience.

Applicant Qualities

Ideal for responsible individuals interested in leading and mentoring younger children.

Commitment Requirements

Must volunteer for a minimum of two full (9am-4pm) or half (9am-12pm or 12pm-4pm) camp weeks, Monday through Friday.

Benefits

A chance to earn community service or volunteer hours while being part of a team.

Counselor In Training (CIT) Volunteer Program

Looking for a fun way to gain volunteer hours? Want to build leadership skills while having fun this summer? Ready to make a difference and be part of an awesome team? Apply to be a part of our Counselor In Training (CIT) volunteer program!

Our CIT program allows teens the opportunity to gain new leadership skills, work experience, and enjoy camp favorites alongside our campers. CITs will help lead group games and crafts, prepare lunch and snacks, participate in our weekly special events, and so much more!

Who Should Apply?

- 15-year-olds looking for work experience and/or volunteer experience
- Responsible individuals interested in engaging with, leading, and mentoring younger kids
- Youth who can commit to volunteering for at least 2 camp weeks, Monday - Friday, either full day (9am-4pm) or half day (9am-12pm or 12pm-4pm)
- Those interested in gaining community service or volunteer hours

How to Apply

Teens interested in becoming a CIT at Camp Liberty should register and fill out the application found here:

CIT Application Form

Registration opens February 9, 2026. We will be accepting applications until April 30, 2026. Upon receiving all applications, we will review and reach out to applicants via email to confirm scheduling. CITs will participate in a staff training before volunteering.

Contact our Camp Director, Alison Marchello, with any questions about our CIT program at camp@libertyathletic.net.
