

Our Ways Director at Indian Community School

INDIAN COMMUNITY SCHOOL

10405 W. St. Martins Road
Franklin, WI 53132
(414) 525-6100
www.ics-edu.org

Our Ways Director

Indian Community School is seeking a full-time Our Ways Director who will strengthen indigenous culture as the heart of the school to light the path forward for our students to sustain our rich legacy. This position ensures the integration of American Indian culture in teaching, school environment, school operations, and community education. The Our Ways Director oversees Language and Culture Teachers and Apprentices who teach Ho-Chunk, Menominee, Ojibwe, and Oneida. The Director also oversees the Our Ways Team and the development and facilitation of programming, instructional plans and materials; providing training and support for faculty and staff on teaching and working culturally, and advising on and/or suggesting resources to address cultural concerns in operations, policy, or planning. The Our Ways Director is a strategic partner and Leadership Team member who is expected to exercise the highest level of judgment and discretion.

About Our School

Indian Community School (ICS) is a private, faith-based school located in Franklin, Wisconsin, with an intertribal student population of 365 students in K4-8th grades. The school is proud of its distinguished learning environments that cultivate an enduring cultural identity and critical thinking with indigenous teachings. ICS is focused on student engagement, high-quality teaching and learning, strong leadership, utilization of resources, rigorous coursework and the academic success of all students. The school is located on a 178+ acre campus including plant medicines, prairies, wetlands, ponds, forested areas, a Teaching Lodge, a Spirit Pole, sweat lodges, lacrosse fields, and naturally landscaped grounds. It is a modern and unique building designed to honor American Indian cultures and values. As a community partner, ICS is dedicated to building relationships with families, strengthening the community and connecting with the natural environment.

OUR MISSION

The Indian Community School cultivates an enduring cultural identity and critical thinking by weaving indigenous teachings with a distinguished learning environment.

To learn more about this position or to apply, please visit us online at www.ics-edu.org.

