

FOREIGN TRADE ZONE SEMINAR

UNDERSTANDING TRADE DISRUPTIONS & TARIFFS

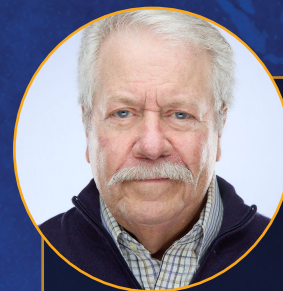

Navigating Strategies & Solutions in Global Trade

THURSDAY, JUNE 18, 2026 | 11:00AM - 1:30PM

As tariffs, trade policies, and supply chain disruptions continue to impact businesses worldwide, this timely seminar will provide practical strategies and critical updates to help companies navigate today's evolving global trade environment, with a focus on Foreign Trade Zones for tariff mitigation and supply chain optimization.

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN:

- Comprehensive update on IEEPA tariff refunds and new tariffs forthcoming
- 20 solutions & strategies to mitigate tariffs
- Strategies, including FTZ's, to reduce tariff costs and supply chain disruption
- How importers, exporters, logistics companies/3PL's can manage their trade activities successfully

About the Presenter:

THOMAS COOK

Thomas Cook is Managing Director of Blue Tiger International and a recognized expert in global trade, supply chain management, and trade compliance. With more than 35 years of experience, he has advised companies worldwide on import/export operations and authored more than 20 books on global trade and supply chain disruption.

DATE & TIME

June 18, 2026
Check-In: 11:00am
Program: 11:30am - 1:30pm

LOCATION

Pacific Palms Resort
1 Industry Hills Pkwy
City of Industry, CA 91744

PRICE

$30 (Before 6/11)
$40 per person

REGISTRATION

www.IndustryBC.org
(626) 968-3737
rsvp@industrybc.org

