Overview Christian Scriptures - Rev. Geo Downer & David Drumm, LUT- $60.00

Overview: Christian Scriptures explores the Gospels, Letters, History (Book of Acts) and Apocalyptic literature, (Book of Revelation) which comprises what is more commonly known as the "New Testament" of the Judeo-Christian Bible.

Overview: Christian Scriptures is NOT a course in metaphysical Bible interpretation. The course's primary purpose is to develop an understanding of the meaning of the Christian Scriptures for the people to whom they were written, and an application of that meaning to our lives today. The class is based on the premise that, whatever else the Christian Scriptures may be; they most definitely are the response of early Christian writers to both the person and the message of Jesus Christ.

Understanding the Christian Scriptures as a Testament about Jesus Christ rather than a Testament of Jesus Christ frees us to appreciate and become inspired by the powerful faith of the first followers of The Way.

Harnessing the Power of Paradox - Rev. Kelly Isola - $60.00

"Paradox" is often used to talk about frustrating situations in which traditional problem solving does not seem to work. We encounter paradox in the form of conflicts, resistance to change, fixes that fail and chronic issues we can't seem to move beyond. A paradox, or polarity, is a pair of opposite, yet interdependent values, that need each other for healing and wholeness in life. Our ability to do "the work that in due season will encircle the earth," as Charles Fillmore says, depends upon us moving beyond some basic assumptions that have formed our choices, but which may no longer be serving the greater good for our lives. We learn to discern between deeply held beliefs and rigidly held beliefs. Rigidly held beliefs are always louder, leading to separation and sometimes anger, whereas deeply held beliefs serve, heal and are always tempered by the power of love.

In this workshop, we will learn to harness the power of self-identified paradoxes keeping us stuck because we think of them as either/or propositions. Attendees will begin identifying what keeps them stuck, and create strategies and small action steps to enable change with expanded capacities for loving, seeing broader perspectives and living our most Noble Selves.
