

FARM TO FORK SUMMIT

March 6, 2026 - Nevada, MO

9am-4pm, Nevada Community Center

Networking – Focused Sessions – Panel Discussions – Exhibitors – Locally Sourced Lunch & More!

Featuring Food as Medicine & More!

WHO IS FARM TO FORK FOR?

Those wanting to supply, distribute, or purchase local food

Local Businesses & Community

Farmers & Ranchers

Schools & Institutions

Distributors & Retailers

Sessions topics include:

- Building Healthy Futures with Food as Medicine by Erin Martin
- Diversify with Sheep and Goats
- Build Direct to Consumer Sales
- Explore On-Farm Dining & On-Farm Entertainment Options
- Going Wholesale with Regenerative Farm Products
- Regenerative Farm Design
- Navigating USDA Programs
- Missouri & Kansas Cottage Food Law
- Farm Stops & Food Hubs
- And so much more!

Plus, locally sourced lunch and snacks!

Get Tickets and Details at newgrowthmo.org/farmtofork

Organized by:

NEW GROWTH
WOMEN'S BUSINESS CENTER

Extension
University of Missouri

THE KANSAS CITY
FOOD HUB

LINCOLN
UNIVERSITY
Cooperative Extension

Questions? Contact Jaclyn Carroll, New Growth, 660-476-2185 x 3142 or email jcarroll@newgrowthmo.org.

The purpose of the annual Farm to Fork Summit and Expo is to support the family farm, strengthen local businesses, and increase food security in our region of west central Missouri and eastern Kansas.