

"What Pride Means to Me"

Art Display

June is Pride month, a month where LGBTQ+ people celebrate their identities. We invite students and staff to unleash your creativity and share what Pride means to you. We will create a display in the lobby of the school showcasing your work so we as a community can all share and celebrate what Pride means to us.

“What Pride Means To Me” School Art Display

You might be wondering, “What can go in this art display?” That’s up to you! As long as it can be attached to the walls in the lobby, you can make it. Here are some ideas:

- Drawing
- Poster
- Photo
- Poem
- Story
- A single sentence, phrase, or word

If you choose to do something text-based, consider putting it on an attractive background.

A vibrant rainbow flag is shown flying from a flagpole on the left side of the frame. The flag's colors—red, orange, yellow, green, blue, and purple—are visible against a bright, slightly overexposed blue sky. The flag is slightly curved, suggesting it is moving in the wind.

“What Pride Means To Me” School Art Display

- You can collaborate with other students if you like. You can choose to put your name on your work or make your work anonymous.
- Your work must contain only school appropriate images and language.
- Please submit your artwork to Drew, Rachel, or Rob Bright. We'd love to put your work up by the beginning of Pride Month (June 1), but you can submit during Pride Month as well so we can see our display grow throughout the month. Please contact Drew, Rachel, or Rob with any questions.