

Find out if you have committed a felony if you hit and kill a bird with your car!

Did you know that a “knowing” violation of the Migratory Bird Treaty Act of 1918 is a felony?

2018 marks the 100th anniversary of passage of the Migratory Bird Treaty Act, which is still the basis for much of the protection of our wild birds.

In this illustrated lecture, Dr. Kurk Dorsey will tell the surprising story of how the federal government found itself in the business of protecting migratory wildlife. Such colorful characters as Woodrow Wilson, Alexander Wetmore, & Mabel Osgood Wright played important roles in the drama.
