Storytelling: Fact & Fiction

Wed May 13, 2pm-4pm
Online via Zoom

Join Jim Blake and Fay Wilkinson for Part 2 of a free, fun and interactive session on the art of storytelling. Jim and Fay will share pointers on successful approaches to telling both personal and 'found' (e.g. folk tales) stories. Come prepared, having done some work learning a short (3-5 minute) story of your choice of genre. There will be plenty of opportunity to practice some of the tips tailored to the telling of your story. To register and get the weblink, email fay@thecreativecocoon.com
