MOVIES THAT MATTER RETURNS

Presented by the Human Rights Film Coalition of SWFL. Join us to educate, engage, and facilitate discussion around human rights topics through film. For further details on films and speakers, go to HolocaustMuseumSWFL.org or GenShoahSWFL@gmail.com.

INVISIBLE HANDS Wednesday, Oct. 16 at 6:30 pm

This is the first feature documentary to expose child labor and child trafficking within the supply chains of the world's biggest companies. It is a harrowing account of children as young as 6 years old making the products we use every day.

A PLACE AT THE TABLE Wednesday, Oct. 23 at 6:30 pm

50 Million Americans - 1 in 4 children - don't know where their next meal is coming from. A Place at the Table tells the powerful stories of three Americans who maintain their dignity even as they struggle just to eat. It is a riveting journey that will change forever how you think about the hungry.

HEROIN(e) Wednesday, Oct. 30 at 6:30 pm

This Oscar-nominated film follows three women - a fire chief, a judge, and a street missionary - battling the opioid epidemic.

Each film will be shown at Paragon Pavilion Theater
833 Vanderbilt Beach Rd, Naples, FL 34108.

There will be a panel of experts and discussion after each film.

Tickets are $10 each and available only at the Museum's website, HolocaustMuseumSWFL.org.

Please note, there will be open seating for each screening.
