Legislative 101: Break Down of a Bill and Beyond

10:45 AM - 11:45 AM

Deena Bosworth

Director of Governmental Michigan Association of Counties

Deena Bosworth joined MAC in 2011 and became director of governmental affairs in December 2013. Bosworth previously served as director of legislative relations for the Michigan Attorney General's Office, as assistant county administrator with the Charlotte County Board of Commissioners in Florida and as legislative director and senior policy adviser for the Michigan House Republican Caucus. She has a B.A. in anthropology from Western Michigan University.

Meghann Keit-Corrion

Governmental Affairs Associate, Michigan Association of Counties

Meghann Keit-Corrion joined MAC in September 2017 from the office of Sen. Jim Stamas. Keit-Corrion also worked for Stamas when he served in the Michigan House and for the Midwest Strategy Group in Lansing, where she was a legislative analyst.

Session Description:

Whether you've been a long-time Commissioner or newly elected, this session will help you understand the ins, outs, ups and downs of the policy making process in Lansing. By employing this knowledge, you will better success in advancing policy, have more informed discussions with your state legislators and be able to explain the process to the rest of your board. The women of MAC's government affairs team will break down the legislative process, go through terminology that will enhance your understanding of state policymaking and give you the real life version of "How a Bill Becomes a Law" in Lansing. An in- depth overview of the state annual appropriation process and the inside scoop of budget negotiations will be provided during this session.
