Pro Bono Legal Clinic for Transgender Employees

You are invited to attend a pro bono legal clinic for transgender employees, focusing on employment discrimination.

In a unique partnership with OutFront Minnesota, QUORUM, Gender Justice, and the employment discrimination law firm of Schaefer Halleen, the Trans Legal Clinic offers a monthly opportunity for members of the trans community to seek free consultations with discrimination attorneys. The clinic will begin with a brief presentation explaining your rights as a transgender employee, followed by one-on-one consultations with an attorney on a first come, first served basis.

There is no cost for the consultation provided at the clinic and no appointment necessary. Please join us:
