

WARM WISHES THIS HOLIDAY SEASON

As we move through this holiday season, we know that celebrations can look different for everyone. Some may be observing Christmas, Hanukkah, Kwanzaa, Winter Solstice, or other meaningful traditions. Others may not celebrate at all. For some, this time brings joy, connection, and light; for others, it can be a season of loneliness, stress, or tender memories.

Wherever you find yourself, and whatever this season looks like for you, please know that we see you, we honor your experience, and we are holding space for you.

May the weeks ahead offer moments of peace, warmth, and comfort in the ways you need most. We are grateful for you, and we are here to support you—today and always.

Wishing you peace, light, and comfort this holiday season,

Women Veterans Ignited
