ACVA Winter 2021 edition of the Comet

Dr. Bill asked me in the fall of 1996 to help him sell his paintings. He always wanted to sell his artwork. That didn't happen. He was too busy with his life, especially his decades-long volunteer work with ACVA promoting his deep love of Jyotish astrology to the world, to spend his time promoting his own artwork.

And, now, I'm asking you to help me fulfill this wish of his.

Bill loved beauty. He seemed to find it everywhere. He loved creating beauty, whether via the photoshopped pictures he put on Facebook of squirrels surfing or squirrels playing pool, as well as his large, bold canvas acrylic paintings.

He never tried to sell his art.

He was busy with his other loves - Jyotish astrology, writing three books and scholarly astrological articles, our cats, travel, as well as me, his wife!

Now for the first time, I have just put them online on an art platform www.mesart.com/billlevacy. Previously they were still in storage. This is Phase One. Please check it out!

I've included a variety of his artwork. Many are vibrant, bright colors in an abstract or meditative style. There are both medium and large-sized canvases, that can either be shipped or picked up in LA.

I plan on including some of his much loved photoshopped digital pictures he often displayed on Facebook. Many were of flowers, whether from my garden or from our travels.

If you like them, as I do, please share this link with your friends and family. Maybe add the link to your Facebook or Instagram account?!

Bill always said to me "We're a team".

Please help me fulfill his wish about getting his artwork out to you and the general public.

I know he would be happy.

Finally, Dr. Bill's extensive Jyotish Library of 35 boxed books is for sale in its entirety only. If you are interested, or if you know of anyone or any organization that may be interested, my email is plevacy@gmail.com Please contact me!

I PLAN ON INCLUDING MORE OF HIS ACRYLIC PAINTINGS, AS WELL AS some of his much, loved photoshopped digital pictures that he often displayed on Facebook.
