

SHARING THE VISION OF TWO KINDRED HEARTS...

Our foundress, Sister Maria Aloysia, and her companion, Sister Maria Ignatia, had the vision to reach out in love to those most in need. Their “kindred hearts” motivated them to serve God by responding to the needs of their times.

As Sisters of Notre Dame today, we recognize the spiritual hunger of God’s people. Through Kindred Hearts Ministries, we strive to share what we have with other “kindred hearts,” those who are seeking to know and love God more.

III. MOVIES THAT MATTER

In his book MOVIES THAT MATTER:

READING FILM THROUGH THE LENS OF FAITH, Richard Leonard, SJ, comments, “Reading a film in the light of faith starts with having the eyes to see, the ear to hear, and the heart to receive what is good and enjoyable in media culture ....Movies matter because they entertain us, cast light on our lives, challenge and provoke us, help us grieve, reduce us to peals of laughter, open up other worlds, and expose some dark realities.... But we know that the world of the cinema, and the stars and stories within it, is not our world. Our everyday story is of greater value than the tales in the movies because we are living in it. Our lives matter more than anything else.”

A. Based on the book MERCY IN THE CITY (available through Amazon.com). Please RSVP for each session you will attend.

- Thursdays: Sept. 29, Oct. 20, Nov. 10
- 7:00 pm-8:30 pm
- Facilitators: Sister Marie Paul, Sister Cristina Marie

When Jesus asked us to feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, and visit the imprisoned, he didn't mean it literally, right? Kerry Weber, a modern, young, single woman in New York City sets out to see if she can practice the Corporal Works of Mercy in an authentic, personal, meaningful manner while maintaining a full, robust, regular life. Weber, a lay Catholic, explores the Works of Mercy in the real world, with a gut-level honesty and transparency that people of urban, country, and suburban locales alike can relate to. Mercy in the City is for anyone who is struggling to live in a meaningful, merciful way amid the pressures of "real life."

For those who feel they are already overscheduled and too busy, for those who assume that they are not "religious enough" to practice the Works of Mercy, for those who worry that they are alone in their efforts to live an authentic life, Mercy in the City proves that by living as people for others, we learn to connect as people of faith.

B. Based on the book HERE AND NOW: LIVING IN THE SPIRIT by Henri Nouwen (available from Amazon.com) Please RSVP for each session you will attend.

- October, 2016-February, 2017

Nouwen writes: "My hope is that the description of God's love in my life will give you the freedom and courage to discover—and maybe also describe—God's love in yours." In this faith sharing/book study we will seek to discover God's action in our daily life experiences.

Who among us hasn't felt pain? It is a universal experience. For some pain is minor; for others it is a constant companion. This deeply spiritual exploration of pain offers encouragement for anyone dealing with suffering whether physical, psychological, or spiritual. It is rooted in scripture and real life, and its 36 brief chapters touch on the many ways pain affects our lives. Recently diagnosed with a rare autoimmune disorder, Sr. Melannie writes from personal experience and with deep wisdom.

Rooted in our Christian faith, her meditations explore topics such as: the universality of pain, pain as wise advisor, Jesus the healer, dealing with setbacks, befriending the imperfect, pain and laughter, the suffering of the saints, biblical images of suffering, and death and resurrection. Each chapter begins with an engaging quotation from a wide variety of sources. The quotation is followed by a meditation on the topic and an appropriate prayer. Each chapter concludes with a question or two for personal reflection as well as a suggested action for the day.

We invite you to join us at Notre Dame Center for the Eucharistic Liturgy and the sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. All are invited to a continental breakfast to conclude our celebration.

- October 6, 2016
- 10:00 -11:30 am
- Facilitator: Sister Antoinette Marie

How can we live moment by moment uniting our life with God? The answer for some is simple and uses an idea for prayer that has been tried successfully for many for more than 500 years—"The D to the PM! That is, devotion to the present moment!

Come join others to celebrate and sanctify a moment's pause in our busy morning to let ourselves be loved by God, to be quieted and to pray reflect and to share. This is an opportunity to look at the ordinary circumstances of our lives, and use them to give honor and glory to our good God. This reflective moment is based on the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola.

II. ADVENT RETREAT: THE "O" ANTIPHONS AND THE LITANY OF LORETO

- Sunday, December 11, 2016
- 2:00 pm– 7:00 pm
- Facilitator: Sister Mary Lisa

The "O" antiphons grace the Advent liturgy in the final days before Christmas. These antiphons are filled with a human longing that transcends countries and centuries. Rich with symbolism, each antiphons includes a salutation, a messianic image and a petition. In the Litany of Loreto, we honor Mary with invocations which have the potential to inspire spiritual awakening and charitable action. As Mary was part of the Messianic prophecies, the Litany of Loreto and the “O” Antiphons complement each other and provide a rich treasury for Advent prayer.

- May 4, 2017
- 10:00 am -11:30 am
- Facilitator: Sister Antoinette Marie

Let's step aside for a moment and experience the deep joy of the resurrection of Jesus Christ and celebrate the faith of Mary. God raised Jesus from death to new life—to the astonishment of all but Mary, who had trusted completely the promise of the God to whom she had said “yes.”

Moment by moment during these springtime days, we are asked to turn around, view things differently and share the gift of our faith with others. Come aside for a moment to reflect on Easter and to share your faith and your experience of the risen Jesus. This reflective moment is based on the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola.
