Policy Letter 22-02

October 14, 2021

ORR Policy Letter (PL) 16-01, Documentation Requirements for the Refugee Resettlement Program, announced a documentation guide, Status and Documentation Requirements for the ORR Refugee Resettlement Program (hereinafter Documentation Guide), that outlined the statuses and categories that confer eligibility for ORR's Refugee Resettlement Program (RRP) benefits and the documentation that is needed to show an individual is eligible. This PL augments ORR PL 16-01 by adding information on acceptable documentation that would qualify an Afghan individual for RRP benefits. ORR rescinds ORR PL 21-07.

In addition to existing services for Afghan Special Immigrant Visa recipients, refugees, and asylees, Congress has authorized ORR to serve the following categories of Afghan individuals in response to their urgent evacuation and resettlement:

1. Afghan individuals who receive SI/SQ Parole
2. Afghan individuals who receive Special Immigrant (SI) Conditional Permanent Residence
3. Afghan humanitarian parolees^{1,2} who are admitted to the United States due to urgent humanitarian reasons or significant public benefit

ORR is adding the following eligible applicants and additional documents to the acceptable documents already listed for Afghan Special Immigrants in the Documentation Guide:
