Physicians Helping U.K. Medical Students Learn About Medical Specialties

Remember when you were trying to decide between medical specialties? “Career Chats,” our 4th annual social event, is designed to assist U.K. medical students learn about the specialties they are interested in from physicians from throughout the community. The evening starts with an informal social, with food and refreshments, followed by medical students talking with physicians working in a specialties they are interested. We group the physicians at tables by specialty and have the medical students do 4 turns of 20 minutes each, kind of like speed dating. The feedback, from both the physicians and the medical students at the prior Career Chat events, was very positive. The medical students are thrilled to learn about specialties from practicing physicians. Our physicians say being around the medical students helps them re-connect as to why they became a physician. Career Chats is on September 21, 6:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. at the Signature Club, 3256 Lansdowne Drive. You can register to attend by going to www.LexingtonDoctors.org or contacting Cindy Madison at cmadison@lexingtondoctors.org or calling (859) 705-0003.
