

See Something, Say Something!

Reducing Risk for Older Adults

You are invited to join us for this dynamic workshop. The See Something, Say Something! Reducing Risk for Older Adults program (formerly known as the Gatekeeper program) is designed to help identify high-risk adults, particularly those who live alone and who may be isolated. Everyone can play an important role in the community in keeping others safe, secure, and independent.

Who is this program for? Anyone who has contact with older or vulnerable adults:

- Bank personnel
- Meter readers
- Volunteers, caregivers, drivers
- Pharmacy personnel
- Post office workers, letter carriers
- Restaurant personnel, grocery store clerks
- Churches, social clubs
- INCLUDING YOU!

Come join us – everyone is welcome!
