Colwell Speakers Series 2025

The troubled US-EU partnership and the consolidation of the European project in Southeast Europe.

A Talk by Ditmir Bushati

7:00 p.m.
Sunday, November 16
Grace Stuart Orcutt Library

Ditmir Bushati

Ditmir Bushati is an Albanian diplomat, lawyer, and political leader best known for serving as Albania's Minister for Europe and Foreign Affairs from 2013 to 2019 and chaired Albania's Committee for European Integration from 2009 to 2013. During his tenure, he played a key role in advancing Albania's European Union integration efforts, strengthening regional cooperation in the Western Balkans, and promoting democratic reforms at home. Bushati has also been active in international policy circles, writing and speaking on European affairs, security, and diplomacy. His career reflects a consistent focus on building bridges—between institutions, nations, and communities—to support Albania's modernization and its place in the broader European community.

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

St Johnsbury Academy