Scholarships

An association for persons with developmental disabilities and mental health needs, NADD supports the inclusion of persons with disabilities, their families, as well as staff members. To this end, a limited number of scholarships are available to help defray the cost of the conference for those who would otherwise not be able to attend. This support is expected to be in the form of a registration reduction or waiver, and requests for other assistance will be considered.

The deadline for applying for scholarship aid is September 22nd.

Family Scholarship Support

The NADD Family Committee is pleased to offer a scholarship for registration fee waivers. Click here to apply.

DSP Scholarship Support

NADD recognizes the vital role Direct Support Professionals play in providing support to individuals who have intellectual/developmental disabilities and mental health needs. Click here to apply.

Silent Auction

The NADD Family Issues Committee is having their Annual Silent Auction at the 34th Annual NADD Conference that is being held in Charlotte, North Carolina Thursday November 2, 2017. We are seeking donated items for the silent auction which is the Family Issue Committee annual fundraiser. The proceeds from this event will help provide scholarships for family members to attend NADD Conferences. The items donated should be portable in size (for travel). Examples of items for donation are: books, artwork, gift certificates. Items that are hand crafted by persons with disabilities are especially encouraged.

Click here for information about donating to the silent auction.
