בס"ד פרשת ויקהל פקודי - החודש - תשפ"א

Parshas Vayakel Pekudei – Hachodesh 5781 Vol. 12 No.23

Rav Yisroel Meir Kagan, The Chofetz Chaim ZY"A, was a great Tzaddik and Goan. It was said about two great Tzadikim of that generation; The Tzidkus (piety) of the Chofetz Chaim hid his Gaonus (greatness in Torah learning), while the Gaonus of Reb Chaim Brisker ZY"A hid his Tzidkus.

Once the Chofetz Chaim was on a train and his hand was at the open window. As the train moved the glove on the hand of the Chofetz Chaim fell out of the window. The Chofetz Chaim immediately tossed the glove of his other hand, and he exclaimed as follows: One day someone will pass the train tracks and find the glove that fell out of the window, if only one glove was there what can one do with a single glove, therefore I quickly tossed the second glove, so the finder shall find a complete pair of gloves!

When Tzaddikim do Chessed (acts of Kindness), it is done to the fullest extent.

The Beis Halevi ZY"A, who was Rov in Brisk was once asked before Pesach (Passover) the following question by a resident of his city. "May one use milk for the Arboh Kosos (four cups of wine) that one is obligated to drink at the Seder on Pesach night?" The Beis Haleivy immediately gave the fellow money for wine and meat etc., explaining, "if you want to use milk for Arboh Kosos, obviously you don't have money for Fleish (meat), (and other needs for Pesach).

A Yungerman once went to the Debreciner Rov Rav Moshe Stern ZY"A, before Kadeish (the beginning of the Seder) on Pesach night, to ask a Sheiloh – question in Halochoh – (Jewish law). The Rov was accompanied by many family guests, he nevertheless asked his question in the stature of time, but felt badly for doing so. As the Yungerman headed to leave, the Debreciner Rov called him over and told him, "You should never (at any time) feel uncomfortable to ask a Sheilloh (Halochic question)."
