

Benjamin Wakeham, Senior Underwriter, Terrorism & Malicious Acts, Southwest Region

Hiscox USA

Ben has been underwriting Security and liability products since 2013. He started writing International Terrorism & Political Violence with Hiscox Syndicate at Lloyd's in 2013, where he developed the market's first non-physical damage terrorism policy. Ben then re-located to the US in 2016 to underwrite Professional Liability and E&S Casualty business, before returning to the Terrorism team in 2019. Hiscox was part of the first ever Active Shooter product consortium which launched in 2014 and has been a leading insurer in this developing space ever since.