

Gregg Kasubuchi

Vice President, Business Development

With over 15 years of experience in tax credits and incentives, payroll and health insurance, Gregg has helped organizations understand the complexities of IRS rules and regulations to help them become more successful. As the Vice President of Partnerships, he has been recognized as an expert in the complexities of the ACA and how to help employers navigate the healthcare law to minimize their risk of being assessed financial penalties by the IRS. He also has a deep understanding of how to effectively respond to the IRS's Letter 226J penalty notice, helping employers avoid significant penalties.
