

Accomplished executive and proven leader, Diana DePaola displays a unique acumen for inspiring teams and motivating performance. Currently managing client success for Staff Boom, she remains active with community organizations such as IBASacramento, IIABCal, The RCC Chamber of Commerce, UC Davis Children's Miracle Network, Make-A-Wish, among others.

A graduate of California State University Sacramento, Diana has demonstrated an innate ability to deliver results and develop beneficial relationships. From employee relations and sales initiatives to carrier relationships and organizational objectives, Diana's keenness of insight and uniquely engaging nature have led her from Human Resource Administration and liaison functions to successful growth as the Personal Lines Sales Management for California-based P&C Insurer, Proven Insurance where she increased agency commissions by nearly 200 percent as well as directly markedly successful sales team training programs and protocols based on carefully monitored client and carrier preferences. Further leading to become Vice President of The Proven Alliance, a market access group spanning 5 states, to Owner of her own independent Property and Casualty agency, Intrinsic Insurance Services.

An avid hiker, photographer and history buff, Diana enjoys extensive travel, local dining and spending quality time with friends and family. She marks one of her more recent accomplishments as climbing Yosemite's Half Dome. Diana aims to continue her involvement in the Property & Casualty sector and to support community enrichment events and safety initiatives with events like Community Safety Saturday, Harley Davidson's Toy Ride and the National Street Rod Association. On a sunny day, you might find Diana aboard a bicycle, shooting photos and sampling some of the local fare in the community.
