Bridjette Shelfo

Bridjette Shelfo joins Dress for Success Palm Beaches effective January, 2021. She has dedicated her career to helping others thrive through various companies in both the news and homebuilding industries. She serves as the Vice President of Sales for PulteGroup in Southeast Florida, leading the Sales operations for ten Pulte, DiVosta and Del Webb communities from Broward County to Indian River County.

She is an Arizona native, and started her career as a Sales Consultant in the greater Phoenix area. Wanting to help others in their career, Bridjette played a key role in the PulteGroup's pilot certified field trainer program. She helped develop national curriculum and training materials for new hires as well as mentored new hires through the program. She has served in sales leadership for the last 8 years. Prior to working with Pulte, Bridjette worked in the television news industry at news stations in Phoenix, AZ as a producer. She attended Northern Arizona University where she earned a full ride basketball scholarship and was the team captain for three years. Bridjette has volunteered for several organizations, including "Three Square" in Las Vegas, an organization which helps local children get three meals a day, and "Feed my Starving Children" in Arizona. At a young age, Bridjette learned the value of serving and standing with others, while marching with her mom for equal rights for all Americans, and particularly the mistreatment of farm workers in the west.

Bridjette lives in Jupiter with her husband Mike and their two young sons, Leo (age 5) and Lorenzo (age 3).
