

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF BARUCH: THE OATH OF SECRECY

If you would know what eye has not seen nor ear heard
and what has not arisen in the human heart,
and who stands high above all good,
swear to keep the mystery of instruction secret.
Our father, who saw the good perfected in him,
has kept the mysteries of silence secret.
He has sworn and will not waver.

Here is his oath:

*I swear by the one over all, which is the Good,
to keep the mysteries, to tell them to no one,
and not to go from the Good back to the creation.*

When you take this oath, you enter the Good
and see what eye has not seen nor ear heard
and what has not arisen in the human heart.
You drink from the living water,
the washing, the spring of living water bubbling up.
And there was a separation of waters from waters,
and the waters below the firmament belong to evil creation.
In them are washed those who are earthly and psychical.
The waters above the firmament belong to the Good and are alive. The spiritual and the living are washed in them as Elohim was after the washing. He did not waver.
