

A READING FROM THE GOSPEL OF THOMAS

These are the hidden sayings that the living Jesus spoke and Judas Thomas, the Twin, recorded. And he said, "Whosoever discovers the interpretation these sayings will not taste death."

Jesus said, "Seek and do not stop seeking until you find. When you find, you will be troubled. When you are troubled, you will marvel and rule over all; and having ruled, you will rest."

The kingdom is inside you and it is outside you. When you know yourself, then you will be known, and you will understand that you are the children of the living Father. But if you do not know yourselves, then you dwell in poverty and you are poverty.

A person old in days will not hesitate to ask a little child seven days old about the place of life, and the person will live. For many of the first will be last and become a single one. Know what is in front of your face and what is hidden from you will be disclosed. There is nothing hidden that will not be revealed.

"Do not lie." "Do not what you hate." Again all things are disclosed before heaven. There is nothing hidden that will not be revealed, nothing covered that will not be disclosed. I have thrown fire upon the world, and look, I am watching until it blazes.

This heaven will pass away and the one above will pass away. The dead are not alive and the living will not die.. When you are in the light, what will you do? One the day you were one, you become two. But when you become two, what will you do?

I shall give you what no eye has seen, what no ear has heard, what no hand has touched, what has not ever arisen in the human heart.
