

1ST ANNUAL WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP SPEAKER SERIES

The U.S.-Russia Chamber of Commerce is proud to announce our 1st Annual Women's Leadership Speaker Series luncheon.

"Almost every country in the world has less than five percent of its top companies run by women, including the United States and every country in Europe," said Facebook CFO Sheryl Sandberg at the 2015 World Economic Forum.

Women are an essential part of the global economy. Join the USRCC in a conversation with influential women who have achieved success and are making an impact on US-Russia trade and investment. A panel discussion will provide a unique perspective with real examples of challenges, success stories and opportunities. This series will explore the global private sector's economic influence of businesswomen in the USA, Russia and CIS countries.
