

Ms. Anna Skorobogatova is the Director of the Charity Foundation 'Vera'. Vera Fund is the only nonprofit organization in Russia that consistently supports hospices and their patients. Currently the Fund is conducting an inventory of all hospices and neurological nursing homes in Russia with the goal of improving the quality of conditions and care in them. In her role, Ms. Skorobogatova's responsibilities include strategic and operational management, development and implementation of the fund's strategy - including fundraising and communications, personnel management, budget control, partner development.