

Ms. Daria Kondrasheva (pen name Mosunova) is as a founder and active member of several NGOs, a creative blogger and journalist, an author of books and children's stories, and a mother of five children. She holds the position of Executive Director of "Charity Fund named after Astafyev", which conducts an annual festival for teachers, holds literature evenings in orphanages, hospitals, and elder care homes, and organizes inclusive music concerts. Ms. Kondrasheva also created the charity "Triplets" to support families through activities such as annual events for Mothers' Day, New Year celebrations for mothers and children, "Beauty Fest" where stylists and make-up artists provide free sessions to moms, and "You Are a Hero" where famous sports personalities make hospital visits to children who survived serious trauma or major surgery. In 2014, Ms. Kondrasheva organized a volunteer club "Miracle Wool Balls." Its members knit tiny hats, socks, mittens, blankets, and healing woolen octopuses for premature babies in intensive care units. In addition to her NGO activities, Ms. Kondrasheva is an active journalist and blogger. She won the 2017 Krasnoyarsk "Best Charity Blogger" award "InstaMom," received the 2018 Krasnoyarsk Facebook Award, and has recently won of the Kray Blogger's competition "Savior on Yenisey River."