

Rolando Garcia, JD, CPA

Professional Experience

Rolando Garcia is a Shareholder in Doeren Mayhew's Tax Group, where he assists numerous multinational clients across a wide variety of industries.

Rolando brings more than 20 years of experience to his role in areas such as ensuring U.S. tax compliance for international individuals and businesses, identifying international tax incentives and advising multinational businesses on establishing a U.S. presence. Additionally, Rolando is heavily relied on by his clients to navigate inbound and outbound practices, including pre-immigration planning for individuals, and more.

With an extensive background in international tax law, Rolando is a frequent author featured in various accounting publications and journals, and is regularly invited to speak as a subject-matter expert at industry-related events across the nation.

Prior to joining the firm, Rolando owned a boutique tax practice in South Texas and later served as a national leader for the international private client service group at RSM US, LLP.
