PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

RACHEL JORDAN
CBJ PRESIDENT

The Right Room: Highlights from my Annual Report to the Congregation

As I reflected on the past year in preparing my annual report to the congregation, I found myself thinking about a simple lesson shared by a beloved high school baseball coach at my son's high school graduation.

His advice to graduating seniors was this: "If you are the smartest person in the room, you are in the wrong room."

That sentiment sums up how I think about leadership at Congregation Beth Judea. No one person has all the answers, and no one person can do everything alone. Our strength comes from the remarkable people who contribute their talents, expertise, creativity, and passion to this community every day. As I reflect on the past year, I do so with deep gratitude for being in the right room with the people of this congregation.

Last July, I outlined three priorities for the year ahead: continuing to invest in our religious school, addressing our physical space, and ensuring our personnel and financial structures evolve to meet the needs of our congregation. I am proud of the progress we have made in all three areas.

In September, we dedicated and named the Barbara Robbins School for Jewish Learning, honoring the Robbins family's extraordinary commitment to Jewish education. Their generosity, along with that of the program's founding donors, continues to make Project 613 possible, helping ensure that financial barriers never stand in the way of a Jewish education for our children. We also completed a search for a new Education Director and are excited to welcome Melissa Mesa to our team on July 1.

In November, we launched Campaign Eit-Ratzon, our $2.5 million capital campaign to renew and revitalize our synagogue building while strengthening our long-term financial future. Thanks to the generosity of 107 families to date, we have already surpassed the halfway point of our financial goal. I am deeply grateful to campaign co-chairs Steve Schneider, Maureen Stolman, and Neil Jordan, as well as Michael Gluck, whose vision and marketing expertise helped bring the campaign to life, and Rabbi Zimbalist, whose tireless fundraising efforts have helped drive its success.

This year also brought important transitions to our clergy. We will soon welcome Rabbi Micah Cowan as Assistant Rabbi, while also preparing to say goodbye to Cantor Bat-Sarah as she and Lev begin an exciting new chapter in Israel. We are grateful for Cantor Bat-Sarah's many contributions to our congregation over the past five years and look forward to celebrating her in the days ahead.

We also experienced moments of loss. The passing of Theresa Parilli and Rabbi Jeff Pivo, who both faithfully served our congregation, reminded us once again of the caring and supportive nature of this community. The way our congregation rallied around their families reflected the very best of who we are.

Financially, CBJ continues to stand on strong footing. Through careful planning, dedicated volunteer leadership, and the generosity of our members, we achieved a milestone that generations of congregants worked toward: paying off our mortgage after 57 years. Becoming debt-free marks an important moment in our congregation's history and positions us well for the future.

Looking ahead, we have much to be excited about. We will continue our Campaign Eit-Ratzon efforts, begin planning future building improvements, welcome new professional staff, expand programming opportunities, and refine our two-rabbi model. Most importantly, we will continue building a community where people feel connected, supported, and inspired.

I often hear that being a synagogue president is a thankless job. While it certainly comes with its challenges, my experience has been quite the opposite. I am thanked often, and for that I am deeply grateful. That is because Congregation Beth Judea is a community that shows appreciation, supports one another, and comes together to accomplish remarkable things.

Thank you for your partnership, your generosity, and your commitment to our shared future. Great things are happening at Congregation Beth Judea and together, we are making them happen.

- Rachel Jordan

B'NAI MITZVAH BIO

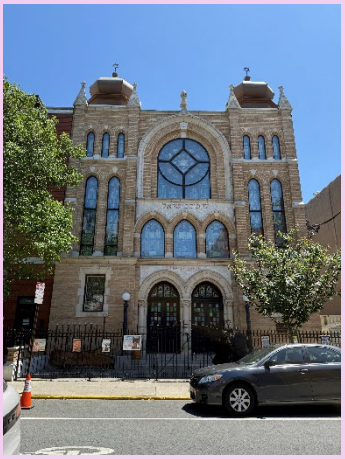

Becca Brooke Horowitz will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on Saturday, June 6, 2026. She is a 7th grade student at Aptakisic Junior High School and has been working diligently in preparation for this day. Becca enjoys beading, playing the piano, hiking and exploring nature, attending Camp Chi, hanging with her friends, and anything that has to do with animals. She loves caring for her dog (Dora), cats (Peter, George and Melvin), and her fish.

For her Bat Mitzvah project Becca has been creating and selling beaded bracelets to raise money for Flint Creek Wildlife Rehabilitation. Founded in 2003, Flint Creek Wildlife Rehabilitation is a state and federally licensed, private, not-for-profit wildlife rehabilitation center dedicated to the care of injured and orphaned wildlife and to educating the public about wildlife and wildlife-related issues. Over the past few years Becca has taken an orphaned baby possum and several injured birds to Flint Creek for medical care and rehabilitation.

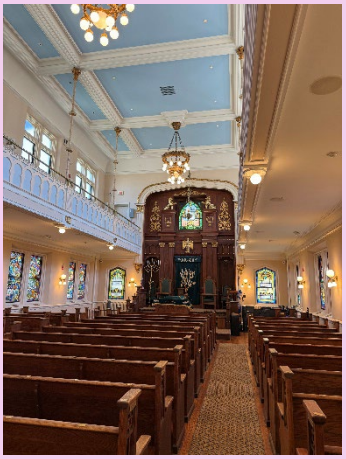

Becca and her family would like to thank Kim Abern, Cantor Bat-Sarah, and Rabbi Zimbalist for their time and guidance in helping prepare for this special day.

Eric Yegelwel takes us to the United Synagogue of Hoboken, New Jersey

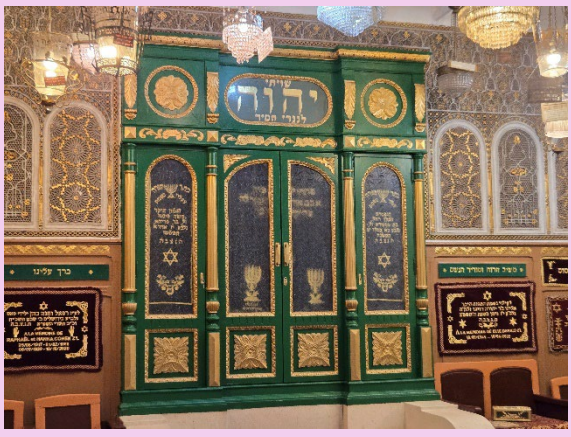

The United Synagogue of Hoboken has an interesting history that reflects the evolution of Jewish life in Hoboken. In 1946, the Hoboken Jewish Center and Star of Israel Synagogue merged to form the United Synagogue of Hoboken. Moses Montefiore Synagogue had also been invited to join the merger but declined because the new congregation planned to use mixed seating for worship services rather than traditional separate seating for men and women. The Star of Israel building itself, constructed in 1915, is one of the oldest surviving synagogue buildings in New Jersey. After being closed for approximately twenty years, it reopened in 1989 and remains an active synagogue today. A major exterior restoration was completed in 2009 with assistance from a $280,000 matching grant from the New Jersey Historic Trust. The building is listed on both the New Jersey Register of Historic Places and the National Register of Historic Places.

MEN'S CLUB

May was an eventful month for the Men's Club. The weekend of May 1st to the 3rd, 10 of us traveled down to St. Louis for the Midwest Region Retreat. It was a great time of socializing, davening, and programs. The St. Louis Men's Club chapter did a great job of organizing it and were truly, warm and wonderful hosts.

On Wednesday, May 13th, Orin Rotman led a very informative and entertaining Tap the Torah program. The subject was Eliyahu HaNavi (Elijah the prophet). We all learned a lot as Orin, besides being a great storyteller, is also very knowledgeable about Tanakh.

On Tuesday, May 19th, we held another of our popular Guys Night Out, an evening of pizza, drinks, and conversation.

We are presenting something new this month that I'm really excited about. On Sunday, June 7th, the Men's Club is inviting everyone to an evening of Beer, Burgers, and Trivia. The deadline for registration is June 3rd. Contact me at louleemg@aol.com for more details or check the flyer in the synagogue weekly email. I hope to see many of you there.

Looking ahead, Sunday, August 23rd, we will be holding the Jack Rizman Memorial Golf Outing. Last year's event was enjoyed by all and we're expecting this year to be the same. More details to follow.

Wishing you a wonderful late Spring and early Summer.

SISTERHOOD

Dear Fellow Congregants,

We hope everyone had a meaningful Shavuot and Memorial Day weekend.

We look forward to our Installation Dinner at Lou Malnati's on June 9 at 6:30pm. We would love to see all Sisterhood members who are able to join us. Please register via the link in the Weekly Bulletin and kindly remember to specify if you have dietary restrictions that will need to be pre-ordered.

We greatly appreciate the many women who have stepped up to take new roles in our Sisterhood, working to attract new members and fresh ideas.

I (Darlene) will be leaving my position as co-President, one that I have enjoyed by meeting new people, working with Michele Sussman and the entirety of the Executive Board and assisting with our Sisterhood community. I would like to thank Cantor Bat Sarah for her encouragement and assistance to ensure the success of many of our Sisterhood events and inspire my own dedication to this organization. I will continue to participate in Sisterhood events and look forward to what Sisterhood has to offer.

We hope you have a wonderful summer,
Darlene Bikshorn and Michele Sussman
co-Presidents
