FROM THE RABBI

Several CBJ families attended the Niagara Foundation IFTAR Dinner on May 25, 2019. Rabbi Zimbalist was one of the speakers, and delivered these remarks to 300 guests from the Jewish, Christian and Muslim communities.

Ramadan Mubarak! Good evening. And shavua tov – May the week ahead be peaceful with goodness and abundant blessings.

My name is Morris Zimbalist; I am the rabbi of Congregation Beth Judea in Long Grove, and it is an honor to be with you this evening. Thank you for inviting me and my family, and thank you for welcoming so many members of my congregation to your community. It is truly a privilege to share this sacred time and meal with you during the holy season of Ramadan. And to my friend Ferhat – my partner in peace – thank you for your continued warmth and kindness, for your vision, leadership, and inspiration.

Last Sunday was the final day of religious school at my synagogue before summer vacation. We held an end-of-year program in the sanctuary which featured our 2nd graders. The program itself was not steeped in ritual, but rather it was filled with a sense of responsibility – our responsibility – to be good people, to embrace each other, and to create a sense of community and belonging. I listened intently as our students reminded all in attendance of some fundamental tenants of faith. One student said, “You shall be holy because God is holy, and all people are created in the image of God.” Another said, “Love your neighbor as yourself.” And another student said, “Do not put a stumbling block before the blind.” Each member of the class recited similar verses and teachings and, as you might suspect, the parents, grandparents, and guests who were there, like me, were filled with pride and hope for the future. One student looked directly at me, or at least I think he was looking at me, and said,

RABBI
MORRIS ZIMBALIST

“Do not worry. It is all going to be okay.” That was a Kodak moment for me as I mentally snapped a picture of that innocent child and placed it in a beautiful glass frame in my mind. I see that picture as a window to the future – an image that I must always see and a vision to share with the world.

Later in the week, I found myself sitting with a 102-year-old woman. She was kind and gracious. She shared with me some bits and pieces of her history and life story. Much of our conversation centered around a single picture – a framed photograph of her family. My guess is that picture was taken around 1920 – a time when many of the Jews in Europe led seemingly normal lives. They had families. They had jobs. They had community. I looked carefully at the faces in that photograph. Little did they know that less than 2 decades later, the world would go mad, hatred and chaos would replace world order, and everything that they knew and loved would be destroyed. Looking through the glass frame at that picture and putting that image next to the one of my second-grade student in my mind, I said to myself, “How can I not worry?” I see that picture as a window to the past – an image that I must always see and a vision to share so the world will never forget.

All of us have windows that we look through throughout our lives that shape our perception of community. And as people of faith – irrespective if we are Jews, Muslims, or Christians – the world is looking at us. In many ways, people of faith are living today in homes made solely of windows – we live in glass houses – with the greater world drawing radical conclusions of our thoughts, intentions, and desires, simply on their perceptions of what they see. Stereotypes still exist. Anti-Semitism, racism, and Islamophobia still exist. Fear and ignorance still exist. And there are too many people who believe that division and separatism are better avenues to peace than dialogue, careful listening, understanding, and tolerance. Knowing that the world is watching us, and that this evening a loving Muslim community invited a loving Jewish community to their spiritual home for sacred reflection during Ramadan, let's take a moment and engage together – as one community of faith – in critical self-reflection. We need each other, perhaps more than ever before.

Mirrors are similar to windows in the sense that they are both made of glass; however, mirrors allow us to see only in one direction – either at what is behind us or directly back at ourselves. So perhaps both images are apropos for us to consider tonight as we look to build a stronger and more united community for our collective future. But before we can look forward, we must carefully look at ourselves with a mirror, and at our past and ask ourselves, do we like what we see? Do we see more than just our physical reflection? Do we see strength and diversity in the community standing behind us? If our reflection only reveals our physical traits and we base our self-assessment solely on that, how are our mirrors different from another person's window? And if our community is based solely on those who believe exactly the same things that we believe, how can we prove that together we are stronger? Maybe a better question to ask ourselves is "who" rather than "what" do we see when we look into a mirror? Does our image reflect a person who is beautiful both on the inside and the outside? Does our quality of character need to broaden and become more accepting, tolerant, and kind? Is our community too insular? Do we appear vulnerable and alone?

Tonight, my friends, I want to challenge us all to be bold, daring, and courageous. Tonight, we need to deepen our commitment to personal growth within the context of communal potential. Tonight, we must be reminded of our shared values and exemplify them for all to see. There is no room for hate or intolerance in the community that I wish to build with all of you. United we stand. United we are stronger. United we are safer. United we are better. Our community is one of love and respect – one in which our different religions and faiths guide us along a similar sacred path. Our community is one of trust and support – one that stands side by side should hate or intolerance attempt to break us apart. And our community is one that believes in things much greater than ourselves – one that treasures our similarities and celebrates our differences. Our community has limitless potential.

This is now the third time that I've been blessed to address many of you here this evening. However, it is the first time that we are coming together in sacred convocation and not in response to tragedy. It is also the first time that I'm experiencing an Iftar dinner and program. In Jewish tradition, when something is experienced for the first time, a special blessing is recited to mark that milestone and thank God for the strength that God has granted that person to reach that special day. So as I conclude my remarks and again, thank all of you – my Muslim brothers and sisters – for opening your sacred home during this holy season, and for deepening our collective commitment to unity and community, I say the ancient hallowed and thankful words she'hechianu v'keyimanu v'higianu lazman hazeh – we have been granted life and strength and have been blessed to reach this day together.

Ramadan Mubarak! May we go from strength to strength.

At Shavuot we remember and re-enact the giving of the Torah at Mount Sinai. As we celebrate that event, we teach and learn deep into the night, staying awake in anticipation of the moment we came face to face with God. The evening will be full of learning with the clergy from Congregation Beth Judea and learned guest teachers.

To Our Beth Judea Family and Friends:

On behalf of the Clergy, Executive Committee, Board of Directors and Staff of Congregation Beth Judea, we wish you and yours a very happy Shavuot blessed with peace, prosperity, and good health on this holiday and always.

President's Message

SIDNEY MATHIAS
CBJ PRESIDENT

I cannot believe that the last two years went by this quickly. On June 30th, my term as your President of Congregation Beth Judea ends. These years have been an incredible honor, privilege, and most rewarding. Working with and getting to know our clergy, executive committee members, board members, staff, and congregants up close and personal has broadened and enriched my life. We have accomplished a lot together. As a congregation, this has been a time of change and challenge. We have worked through this together, and I know that our future at CBJ is bright and promising.

I would like to personally thank Rabbi Zimbalist, Hazzan Ezring, Lisa Neiman, Anna Besser, and Mark Sender and their support staff for all of their hard work and dedication to Congregation Beth Judea and for making CBJ a warm, friendly, and vibrant place of worship and community.

Starting on July 1st, I will still remain on the Board of Directors as the Immediate Past President for a two year term. I want to continue to be actively involved on committees, including the Israel Committee.

I want to wish all the best to our incoming executive committee members, our incoming board of directors, and especially to our incoming president, Dana Goldstein, and our incoming executive vice-president, Herb Finn. Please know that I want to assist you in your new roles.

I want to especially thank my wife, Rita, for allowing me the time away from her in order to fulfill my role and responsibilities as CBJ President.

Thank you for allowing me to serve Congregation Beth Judea as your president.

L'Shalom,

Sidney Mathias
President

HESED COMMITTEE ANNOUNCEMENT

We are pleased to announce that the Bikur Cholim and Helping Hands committees are being combined to create a new Hesed Committee for the benefit of our congregants. Our goal is to support congregants at times of need. The committee is comprised of six subcommittees, which are the following:

- ◊ Should you give permission to clergy or the office staff, members of our committee will telephone you during an illness and if you wish, visit you at home or in the hospital.
- ◊ Members will be available to sit in your house to provide security and accept deliveries while your family and friends attend the funeral of a loved one; we will not be able to set up the kitchen.
- ◊ When possible, we will assist you by driving you to doctor's appointments, religious services or programs, or on errands.
- ◊ We will call you at the end of the 30-day shloshim, or mourning period, to check in during your bereavement.
- ◊ Committee members are available to lead shiva minyans or to attend shiva should you need help forming the minyan.

Should you wish any assistance from the committee, please contact one of our co-chairs: Marilyn Green-Rebnord (847-821-7740) or Evan Rumack (847-253-4130). We can also be reached through our clergy or synagogue office staff.

If you are interested in becoming a member of the committee, we will have a training conducted by Rabbi Zimbalist on June 3rd after minyan. Please volunteer to help your fellow congregants.

The primary purpose of the shiva tradition, or "sitting shiva," is to create an environment of comfort and community for mourners; it helps guide friends and family members through the loss of a loved one. Throughout the weeklong shiva period, mourners come together in one family's home to offer their condolences and support. From a practical standpoint, the shiva process and practices associated with Jewish mourning add comfort to the life of a mourner following a death. In the period after suffering a loss, a mourner may be comforted by the structure and routines prescribed by traditional Jewish mourning laws.

Historically, the Board of Directors of Congregation Beth Judea has sent shiva baskets to the immediate family of Board members; parents, spouses, siblings and Grandchildren. We would like to extend this gesture to the entire congregation.

Donations may be sent the shul attention Lisa Neiman.

Thanking you in advance for your generous donations.

WHAT'S UP IN THE WORLD OF OUR YOUTH???

Magda, Magda, Fritzie

This past month included a number of different holidays and emotions. I have always found it interesting and fitting the way Yom Hashoah, Yom HaZikaron, and Yom Ha'atzmaut fit together in the calendar. I find it to be incredibly fitting that we must commemorate and remember those who perished in the Holocaust and those who perished defending the land of Israel before we celebrate Israel's Independence Day.

In the United States, Memorial Day and Independence Day are over a month apart. We very easily forget the purpose of Memorial Day and instead fill the day with parties and grilled meats. The founders of Israel purposely put the day of remembrance immediately before the day of independence. This was done to force us to always remember the sacrifices that had to be made previously, and continue to have to be, made in order to keep Israel a free and Jewish country.

There is something awe inspiring about the way the entire country of Israel stops for an entire minute during Yom HaZikaron. The siren blasts and every person stops, whether on the highway, in the shuk, or at home, and pauses for a minute of silence and reflection. While people continue on with their day afterwards, that unified minute of silence is something that is incredibly empowering. It unites the country and makes everybody remember the sacrifices required to be free.

This past month, our youth had the incredible opportunity to hear from two Holocaust survivors on two consecutive nights during Yom Hashoah. We first heard in person from Magda Brown, from whom the kids have heard previously. Magda's harrowing story of surviving Auschwitz is a sobering reminder to all of us about just how recently we dealt with such hate in the world. I have heard Magda speak half a dozen times, and I still well up at my eyes during various moments of her account. Her strength to continue to stay positive, is awe inspiring, and helps to quickly bring perspective on the little things.

The very next night the teens attended the Holocaust Museum in Skokie, IL. We had the opportunity to use the amazing new technology to have Fritzie Fritzshall share her story in 3-D while being able to answer questions from the teens. Not only was the technology that allows these stories to be immortalized and come to life amazing (it truly felt like she was in the room with us), but once again we were captivated by the experience that she went through.

In the current day and age that we live in, where the United States is so divided and anti-Semitism is on the rise, these stories remind us that we must never forget. That phrase takes on so much more meaning today. With attacks ramping up on the Jewish community, I take comfort watching the teens accomplish so many amazing things and have hope for the future that this will just become a blip on the radar of history. With that said, the only way to ensure that happens is to stand up to hate and make sure that we do not allow a place for it here.

I want all youth and parents to know that no matter what, they will always have a safe and accepting place here at CBJ. We foster an inclusive environment in our youth house, and together we will combat the increasing hate in the world with our increasing love and acceptance.

School may be out, but the learning never stops! Summer is a great time to extend Jewish learning by performing mitzvot. A mitzvah is often confused as being just a good deed, when really it is so much more than that. It's a commandment, and summer is an opportunity for us to take advantage of observing certain mitzvot, to become better people, to improve our relationship with God and with each other.

Anna Besser
Education Director

Tikkun Olam / Bal Tashchit - (Not Destroying) "When in war against a city... you must not destroy its trees" (Deuteronomy 20:19)

- Go to the Chicago Wilderness website and check out their list of volunteer opportunities around town.
- Recycling is part of Bal Tashchit. Collect 7 recyclable objects and make a sculpture or useful object.
- Make sure your camp recycles. If not, volunteer to start a recycling campaign.
- Go to JUF TOV Volunteer network website. Make a family commitment to help on a project.

Shalom Bayit - (Peace in the Home) "Peace be within your walls and prosperity within your palaces." (Psalms 122:7)

- Give the family cook the night off! Volunteer to make an easy picnic dinner for your family. Set up a blanket in the backyard and enjoy a picnic dinner under the stars.
- Make a coupon book filled with household chores you will help with over the summer.
- Read a Jewish story book to a younger family member.

Shabbat - "Remember the Sabbath day and keep it holy." (Exodus 20:8)

- Create a beautiful bouquet for your Sabbath table.
- Take a family outing to a fruit orchard. Gather fresh fruit and make a scrumptious dessert for Shabbat dinner.
- Take a Shabbat nature walk with a friend or family member. Compose a blessing for some wonder in nature that is new - a windflower or bird you have never seen before, or a bug that is new and different.

Hachnasat Orchim - (Hospitality) "Let me fetch a morsel of bread that you may refresh yourselves." (Genesis 18:5)

- Be like our forefathers and foremothers by welcoming others this summer. Host a festive meal for friends or family.
- Even if you can't host guests for a meal, you can practice this middah (Jewish value) by being a warm and welcoming person; by greeting others with hospitality.

V'ahavta L'ravacha Kamocha - (Loving One's Neighbor) "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." (Leviticus 19:18)

- Summer is a good time to go through your closets and find items that you can give to those in need. With your family, collect shorts, t-shirts, sneakers, jackets, or other items that have been gently used and can be donated.
- Collect your gently used G- and PG-rated movies to donate to a local children's hospital or pediatric floor.

B'nei Mitzvah Bios

Emmet Jesse Jordan will be called to the Torah as a Bar Mitzvah on Saturday, June 15th, 2019.

Emmet is finishing 7th grade at Sundling Junior High School in Palatine, where he plays saxophone in the school band. A sports lover and fan of the Chicago Cubs and Bears, he plays baseball, basketball, and soccer. When not playing sports, Emmet loves gardening, studying commercial aircraft and aviation, and plane spotting at O'Hare Airport. He has a collection of over 100 model airplanes and wants to be an aeronautical engineer.

Emmet shares this simcha with his very proud parents, Rachel and Neil Jordan, and his brother Jacob. He will also be celebrating with his grandparents: Susan Adleman, Marilyn Greenblum, and Stan and Connie Greenblum, as well as aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends from near and far.

For his mitzvah project, Emmet is helping the residents at Symphony of Buffalo Grove with the planting and maintenance of their Residents' Garden this spring. The Symphony is a local rehabilitation and skilled nursing facility where his beloved grandfather, "Pop-Pop" (Marvin Adleman, z"l), spent the final year of his life until his passing in June 2017. Emmet's Pop-Pop is dearly missed, but the family knows he will be with them in spirit at Emmet's Bar Mitzvah.

The Jordan family would like to extend a very special thank you to Rabbi Zimbalist, Kim Abern, and Hazzan Ezring for bringing out the very best in Emmet to help him prepare for becoming a Bar Mitzvah. Additionally, the family would like to thank Hazzan Weisberg and his Junior Yad Squad, Anna Besser, and all of Emmet's religious school teachers since kindergarten for bringing him to this point in his Jewish education.

Sisterhood

June, a most beautiful time of year in the Chicago area, is here. Flowers, plants, and trees are in full bloom. We'd like you to join us at our Sisterhood Installation Dinner on Wednesday, June 5th at The Continental Restaurant in Buffalo Grove at 6:00 pm. We will be "oustalling" last year's board and installing this coming year's. If you are a current Sisterhood member, then there is no cost for you to attend this dinner; however, you MUST RSVP to cbsisterhoodmail@gmail.com by June 1st. But what if you'd meant to join all year and didn't get around to it? Well you're in luck, and have we got a deal for YOU! If you RSVP and join Sisterhood even as late as the night of the Installation Dinner, you will be considered a fully paid-up Sisterhood member for BOTH the 2018-2019 year AND the upcoming 2019-2020 year!! Such a deal!!! Come join us, literally and figuratively.

This is a time of new beginnings and a time for endings. It's also a time to thank our outgoing board and committee members for their service for the past year and/or two years. Some of these women will be continuing in their same positions for the upcoming year, some might be changing positions, and others are leaving the board. No matter your status, everyone deserves a big todah rabah and yasher koach for the great job EVERY board and committee member has done. We are a stronger and more vibrant and healthy Sisterhood thanks to YOUR service. At this time, we'd like to thank the entire 2018-19 board (and some committee members) by name: Rhonda Cohn, Sarah Goldenberg, Debbie Limer, Rebecca Schlichting, Michele Sussman, Fran Eisner, Davida Finkle, Merle Rumack, Heidi Sakol, Lori Finn, Brenda Levin, Karen Nagel, Ann Lerman, Eileen Spiegel, Sandy Levitt, Sherry Weinberger, Rebecca Andreoli, Sandy Englander, Kim Mann, Marilyn Victor, Hannah Whitney, Leslie Peck, Helene Fox, Karri Spiegel, Lauri Rosenbloom, Sherry Krawitz, Jennifer Rosen, Ellen Antman, Wendy Weinger, Helaine Katz-Ratzkoff, Helene Fox, Phyllis Udany, Sari London, Natalie Pesin, Jean Friedman, Pam Herstein, Susan Adleman, Joni Altman, and Andrea Heiger. Ladies, you are all amazing with your energy and dedication. You cannot be thanked often enough for all you do. So, one more time, THANK YOU!!!!

And now I want to get personal. This will be my last Word article on behalf of Sisterhood as I am completing my third (and final – I mean, c'mon!) go-around as president. I am very pleased that Debbie Limer has agreed to be next year's president along with Sarah Goldenberg. I am also very pleased that Michele Sussman has agreed to be executive vice-president which will make filling out the following year's slate that much easier. Because of these three women, I feel that I'm leaving the office of Sisterhood president in good hands. It has been an honor and a privilege to hold this office for so many years. It has also been a labor of love. If you know me even a little bit, you know how much I love Sisterhood. When I joined Beth Judea in the fall of 1984, I made the decision to serve the synagogue through the Sisterhood. I've always been very happy with that choice. I know that Beth Judea is a better place in large part because of the dedicated women of our sisterhood, and I am proud to have been, and will continue to be, a part of that. Thank you for allowing me to serve in this office for so long. Good luck to Sarah, Debbie, and Michele. I know you will be an awesome team!

"The Tattooist of Auschwitz" by Heather Morris

In April 1942, Lale Sokolov, a Slovakian Jew, is forcibly transported to the concentration camps at Auschwitz-Birkenau. When his captors discover that he speaks several languages, he is put to work as a Tätowierer (the German word for tattooist), tasked with permanently marking his fellow prisoners.

Imprisoned for over 2-1/2 years, Lale witnesses horrific atrocities and barbarism—but also incredible acts of bravery and compassion. Risking his own life, he uses his privileged position to exchange jewels and money from murdered Jews for food to keep his fellow prisoners alive.

One day in July 1942, Lale, prisoner 32407, comforts a trembling young woman waiting in line to have the number 34902 tattooed onto her arm. Her name is Gita, and in that first encounter, Lale vows to somehow survive the camp and marry her.

A vivid, harrowing, and ultimately hopeful recreation of Lale Sokolov's experiences as the man who tattooed the arms of thousands of prisoners with what would become one of the most potent symbols of the Holocaust, The Tattooist of Auschwitz is also a testament to the endurance of love and humanity under the darkest possible conditions.

Sisterhood/Men's Club BBQ

Men's Club

Having just celebrated Memorial Day, it is finally safe to say that summer is now officially here, and it couldn't be more welcome. And it's the time of year when school's out and everyone's thoughts are turning to outdoor activities and vacations. While it is also usually a slower time of year at CBJ, there are still a plenty of fun filled activities on the calendar for June and July.

In the arena of outdoor activities, our championship softball team will again be taking the field to defend their title. The overwhelming success of our team, who's won the league title the last five out of six years, has generated so much interest amongst our men's club members that a third CBJ team will compete this year. Although we do have full rosters, there is still room for anyone who is interested to join—thereby helping to ensure that we have enough players each week. If interested, please contact Allen Harris at allenhar55@gmail.com. And if you haven't yet attended a game, consider marking your calendar for 10am Sunday mornings at the baseball fields in Techny, west of Waukegan Road on Techny Road.

On June 22, the Men's Club will again be assisting the residents at the Lieberman Center to get from their rooms to and from the Shabbat service being held for their benefit. I have to tell you from my personal experience that there are few more inspiring mitzvot to be involved in than witnessing the transformation that occurs in these older men and women when they hear the familiar prayers and melodies of a Shabbat service. It's as if a spark is lit within them giving them renewed vigor and bringing a serene look to their faces. We're always seeking additional volunteers to augment our core volunteer group. If interested, please contact Sandy Ramras at si1ramras1@mac.com.

On June 23 the Men's Club will be hosting a Texas Hold'em tournament at CBJ. This resurrection of a long-time favorite will hopefully be the first in a string of similar events for years to come. The evening's activities include a tournament open to anyone who would like to participate, and there will be a deli dinner break about half way through the event. Please see the attached flyer for more information and directions on how to pre-register. (Poker Flyer)

We're also still looking for volunteers to help during the evening's event so if you're interested, please contact Fred Rabinowitz at rabino49@aol.com.

While not exclusively a CBJ event, the biennial FJMC International Convention is being held in Toronto from July 3 – July 7. As those who've attended in the past will tell you, this is an event that has both outstanding religious programs and entertaining, enlightening and fun speakers, and special topic forums. To find out more, just check this link: FJMC Convention.

On July 14, the Men's Club is bringing back the ever-popular Beer & Burgers. The details are still being worked, but preliminarily we're hoping to have beverages provided by a local brewery. Based on the past, this will surely be a fun filled evening with good food and great drinks. Stay tuned for more information that will be forthcoming very soon.

Looking ahead into the summer a little, the Men's Club is pleased to be partnering with Keshet at the annual CBJ Block Party on August 18. Keshet will be bringing a group of their constituents to the park where Men's Club members will accompany them as they participate in the events in which they are interested. We're excited about this opportunity and invite everyone to join us for this fun filled day that is loaded with activities for kids of all ages: a DJ, the ever popular softball challenge game, equipment from the Buffalo Grove Fire Department that can be explored, and of course, some delicious food and drinks.

A week later, on August 25, the annual Rizman Golf outing will be held. Last year's program was one of the biggest in recent memory with over 42 golfers, and we'd like to do even better this year so please mark your calendars now for this ever popular event. And don't forget, even if you don't golf, you can participate by joining the golfers for an "all you can eat" pizza dinner at Malnati's. Doesn't get much better than that!

JUNE-JULY MEN'S CLUB SPOTLIGHT

MEMBER: ROB LIPKA

This month's Men's Club Spotlight is shining brightly on Rob Lipka. Rob has lived in Buffalo Grove for 23 years and has been a CBJ member for 19 years. Rob has been a Cost Segregation & Fixed Asset Analysis Professional for the last 21 years. And if you're wondering what that is like I was, his skill set is an accounting-based specialty that helps for-profit, tax paying companies reduce their tax obligation by accelerating depreciation if they've either built, acquired, or renovated real estate.

His contributions to CBJ include being an accomplished Torah reader, frequently leading musaf services on Saturday and Sunday mornings, and regularly lifting the Torah (Hagbah) on Shabbat. His many Men's Club activities include being the current club Treasurer and Executive Vice President; being the Ritual Chairman at the last Midwest Region Men's Club Retreat; being chairman of the most recent CBJ Men's Club Retreat; reading Torah at the last International FJMC Men's Club Convention; and being the Midwest representative for this year's upcoming International Convention. He's obviously been a very involved member.

When Rob has free time, he likes to add to his extensive wine collection, travels whenever possible, and avidly follows the Cubs, Bears and Bulls.

Thank you to everyone who participated in the Stamp out Hunger program operated by our local post offices on May 11, 2019. The Northwest Suburban Interfaith Council's food pantries received a total of 12,562 pounds of food from Buffalo Grove, Northbrook, Deerfield, Wheeling, Lincolnshire and Highwood post offices. We welcome you and other community organizations to join us. (See attached flier)

Hesed Committee

An Important Announcement

CONGREGATION BETH JUDEA HESED (CARING) COMMITTEE

The Hesed committee would like to know if you have any difficulties/problems that you would like to discuss with a knowledgeable individual. We have a group of congregants who have been trained or are professionals who would be able to provide a brief consultation with you in order to refer you on for more in-depth assistance. We are also thinking about starting some support groups. We would like to know what you feel your needs are. Please email Ellene Lammers at elammers@comcast.net or call the Rabbi.

We Would Like To Know

WE WOULD LIKE TO KNOW....

If you are celebrating a life cycle event such as a birth, engagement, or wedding, we would like to know about it so that this milestone can be included in The Word.

If you are ill or know someone who is sick, we would like to know about it so that a prayer for recovery can be said, so that the clergy can call or visit, and so that the Hesed (Caring) committee can be notified and be of assistance.

If there is a death in your family, we would like to know about it so that we can offer our support, can share this information with our congregation, and so that we can add your loved one to our Yahrzeit records.

Please call the synagogue office with this information. Do not assume that someone else will have notified the synagogue staff.
